"A SPOOKY CEMETARY"

26 OCT 1950

Sponsored by: Maxwell House Coffee, Post Wheat Meal. A Halloween story. The Anderson family runs out of gas on a dark night...in front of a cemetery. It's Halloween in Springfield and the Andersons are heading home after a weekend away in the country with their friends the Palmers. However after taking a short cut they don't know where they are. Jim parks the car on a muddy and rain-spattered road to let Bud get out and check a sign to see where they are. "Well what does it say?" "No Trespassing"! Will they ever find their way home?

ACT II

SLEEPY HOLLOW

AN ORIGINAL ADAPTATION

"The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" is an 1820 short story by American author Washington Irving, contained in his collection of 34 essays and short stories titled The Sketch Book of Geoffrey Crayon, Gent. Irving wrote the story while living in Birmingham, England.

Along with Irving's companion piece "Rip Van Winkle", "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" is among the earliest examples of American fiction with enduring popularity, especially during Halloween because of a character known as the Headless Horseman believed to be a Hessian soldier who was decapitated by a cannonball in battle.[1] In 1949, the second film adaptation was produced by Walt Disney as one of two segments in the package film The Adventures of Ichabod and Mr. Toad.

Dorothy/Katrina

Sydney Christensen is a mother by day and a graphic designer by night. During her free time she is a mother by night and a graphic designer by day. She also enjoys acting during the small moments of dusk; although the time of day doesn't necessarily matter in any of this. Previous roles she has portrayed include: Ida in "See How They Run", Gwendolyn in "The Importance of Being Earnest", and TweedleDee in "Alice in Wonderland". Enjoy the show!

John/Bud/Peter/Old Man

James Eastmond is excited to be a part of this year's Halloween show. He really enjoyed the last one he was in 2 years ago. He's been involved in theatre for around 3 years now, appearing in musicals, stage plays, and musical revues across the Payson-Salem area. He finds lots of happiness on stage, and loves to learn and develop as a thespian. He is happily married to his lovely wife, who is responsible for this new-found pleasure he gets from performing.

George/Jim/DeJaager/Baltus

Chris and Marian Scadden have been in theater for decades. She started her career as Hayfever the Talking Scarecrow when she was eight. He started his career in junior high as the hero in a melodrama. Then, for both of them, there were high school plays, college plays, community plays, professional theater and film, directing, miming, etc., etc., and lots of teaching theater. They love it!

Max

Introducing Gabriel Owens, a seasoned cast member reprising his role in Salem Community Theater's "KSCT Radio Hour: Sleepy Hollow" after last year's captivating performance in "KSCT Radio Hour: A Sea Shanty Tale." His standout favorite remains the unforgettable Salem Hills High School production of "Les Misérables," showcasing his passion for the arts. Stay tuned for Gabriel's upcoming role in "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" later this year, as he continues to mesmerize audiences with his exceptional talent and dedication to the stage.

Doris/Margaret/Woman 2

Hannah Remund has been performing since she could watch her own crying face in the mirror at the ripe age of 2. Hannah enjoyed a childhood filled with drama (the good kind) thanks to being involved in her parents' theater company. She has loved being apart of the community theaters in South Utah Valley, starring in PCT's Summer Nights, as well as playing the elegant Dutchess Olga Katrina in You Can't Take It With You.
